GOOCH JOINS NEW BARNET

Graham Gooch admires his new look after being given a new head of hair by Advanced Hair Studio. He was showing off his hairs and graces in Fitzroy Street, London this afternoon in the first of six appearances at the Advanced Hair Studios.

He will also be showing off his new barnet at Swansea tomorrow when he faces a brush with the Glamorgan bowling attack.

The former England and Essex captain was bowled over by Aussie all-rounder Greg Matthews's new look after he went in for the strand-by-strand procedure. Gooch followed on . . . and here is the result.
